Let's go and hear Dharma!

from (Donor's name):

1

Tree that bears a Buddha (Japanese)

---invented by Rev. Joon Akatsu

2

When one has no idea of genuine things, one tends to regard spurious things as genuine.

---Rev. Rijin Yasuda

3

You cannot redo your life,
but you can rethink of it.

---Rev. Daiei Kaneko

4

All sufferings in life are Tathagata's encouragement.

---Rev. Ryojin Soga

5

What were you born
as a human being for?

---Interpreted from Shoshige

6

Listen in time; Hear now.
What you've heard
will come true some day.

---from Dharma Bulletin

1 back

The front design was imitated from this original one---the tree that bears money,

木の金の

2 back

Dying is not meserable;
Ending one's life in vain is unbearable.

---Shosaku Asada

3 back

Dharma hearing is not the preparation for death,
but the food for life.

---from Dharma Bulletin

4 back

To hear the Dharma is to hear what one's own self is.

--from Dharma Bulletin

5 back

Change the direction;
directing your back to the light
only causes darkness in front of you.

--from Dharma Bulletin

6 back

To hear Dharma with your head may be difficult, but to do so with your mind will bring you to full understanding.
